

Moving to Digital E-Books Beginning February 27th!

American Educational Institute is pleased to announce beginning February 27th, 2017 our claims law textbooks will be supplied in a digital format. Immediately upon enrollment, students will be able to access their E-books from their Student Record Account and begin reading the materials without having to wait for the textbooks to arrive in the mail. Students currently enrolled will also have access to the new digital textbooks.

“We understand our students lead very busy lives and we value the time they devote to their AEI coursework, so we want to provide the e-learning format for their convenience,” stated Amy Koernig, AEI President.

Key Highlights of Digital E-Books:

- Have access to E-book immediately upon enrollment.
- E-book accessible from any tablet, desktop computer or smart phone.
- Students will forever have access to that textbook edition.
- Even if the student is currently enrolled in an AEI program, they will be provided access to the E-book.
- The E-book will automatically open to the last page viewed
- Hard-copy versions of the textbooks will still be available during the enrollment process. There will be a shipping charge of $30 for a full program and $10 for an individual course.
