Join Us in San Diego, October 26-29, 2025

American Educational Institute/Society of Claim Law Associates is excited to announce that we are again partnering with the National Association of Subrogation Professionals (NASP) Annual Conference, where we will be hosting our annual Designation Conferment Ceremony as well as offering a program of expert speakers discussing important claims law topics.

The conference is open to all claims professionals and will be held at the newly debuted Gaylord Pacific Resort in San Diego, CA.

Current & prior AEI students will receive a discounted registration rate of $1850!

The Conference starts on Sunday, October 26th with the AEI Designation Conferment Ceremony (for all those being recognized), immediately followed by a Welcome Reception for all conference attendees.

Educational seminars* take place on Monday and Tuesday, and the event concludes with a breakfast on Wednesday, October 29th.

Claims professionals who have earned an AEI designation between January 1, 2024 & October 1, 2025 will be recognized at the Designation Conferment on October 26th.

Registration will open in June, with additional details to follow, including a registration link to register at the discounted price.

*Continuing education credits are available for TX, FL, and LA for all AEI/Society seminars
